UK Kidney Association
Job description

Job Title: Research Team Administrator

Department/section: Research

Reports to: Senior Project Manager (Research and operations)

General Information

Improving lives by supporting professionals in the delivery of kidney care and research, the UK Kidney Association is the leading professional body for the UK renal community. We welcome members working in clinical renal care, treating and caring for people with kidney disease, and those working in research, or related sciences and fields.

The UK Renal Registry is the part of the UK Kidney Association responsible for the collection, analysis, management and development of a high quality clinical renal database. We use data submitted from the 71 adult and 13 paediatric renal centres across the country to create the database. The information, in the form of data and reports, is a shared resource used to develop research into kidney disease to improve the quality of care for renal patients.

Job Purpose

To provide high quality and comprehensive business support and research coordination to the management and staff involved in UKKA/UKRR research and their workstreams.

To work with administrative colleagues in the UKKA to provide seamless administrative support to all colleagues.

Main Duties

Administrative and research support

1. Maintain the administrative infrastructure to proactively carry out a range of business support services and research coordination for the management and staff involved in the various research workstreams and meetings, to ensure aims are met and deadlines are achieved.

2. Internal and external, in person and virtual meeting administration and support. To include but not limited to: managing video conferencing or booking facilities, communicating effectively with attendees, distributing doodle polls, setting meeting dates and agendas, collating papers, producing presentations, minute taking and maintaining action logs, distributing meeting papers, responding to queries and following up actions. Meetings include (but not limited to) DRG, RMSG, HSDR pain, REFLECT, NACARAI (Cardio-renal), internal Research Meeting, EOI/full application planning meetings, publication planning meetings, joint meetings with BAPN/NCARDS, etc.

3. Participate in relevant internal and external workstream meetings to provide information and support in the development of workstream project plans and reports.

4. Monitor and record progress on research workstream outputs, reporting progress to senior research colleagues, and using initiative to suggest and implement solutions.

5. Provide robust administrative support for the production of the annual report, including making amendments in InDesign, type-setting, table formatting and updates.
6. Liaising with marketing and communications lead, to ensure effective and timely promotion and dissemination of final report.
7. Provide administrative support and oversight for the HDRUK gateway and data use register, tracking data applications and managing feedback from the Data Release Group (DRG), recording data uses and outputs and producing reports as required.
8. Provide administrative support to the maintenance of the research ethics permissions held by the UKRR and RaDaR through the completion of the annual reporting requirements as well as support for the renewal and amendment processes.
9. Work closely with, and provide support to the Information Governance and Data Protection officer with the end-to-end application procedure and renewals for data permissions, and data held by national and regional health data resources (including but not limited to Hospital Episode Statistics/Office of National Statistics data via DARS, infections data via UK Health Security Agency, and transplant data via NHS Blood & Transplant).
10. Support the preparation and running of UK Kidney Week, including coordinating abstract reviews and submissions, following up on outcomes, organising practice sessions, plan the UKKA stand schedule; attend and support the conference.
11. Communicate regularly with the Senior Project Manager and other members of the research team, to ensure up to date awareness and understanding of their current priorities and support needs.
12. Develop, update and maintain the research contacts database, monitoring and logging progress and updates.
13. Access and interpret management information from a range of appropriate sources, including spreadsheets and requesting data from UKKA colleagues and cross-checking against research objectives and expectations; collate and present this data to demonstrate progress made.

Communications

14. Establish and develop productive relationships with wide range of stakeholders at all levels, including internal staff, researchers, external partners and suppliers.
15. With support from senior colleagues and using up to date awareness and knowledge of the research agenda, activities and priorities, write copy for publications, newsletters, website, social media, blogs and reports relating to the research programme.
16. Assist with the administration and maintenance of websites and online platforms.

Finance

17. Provide the necessary information to the finance team, to ensure invoices are paid in an accurate and timely manner.

Admin

18. When required, provide cover for administrative colleagues, to ensure effective and uninterrupted administrative support to all areas within the organisation.
19. Meet regularly with administrative colleagues to ensure workload planning and effective cross-cover arrangements are achieved.

Behaviours and attitude

20. Demonstrate an excellent customer service approach to the performance of all duties.
21. Demonstrate a proactive and assertive attitude and approach to the performance of all duties.
22. Maintain a high level of professionalism at all times and in all communication with internal and external stakeholders.
